A Note from the NMLRA Territorial Coordinator

I would like to extend my apologies to all those competitors whom shot in the Kentucky Rifle and Pistol Territorial, despite several requests the results of that competition were not received by the NMLRA. Without the results the scores could not be included in this report.

Special Thank You

The 2016 Territorial Match Directors couldn't say enough about the people to whom they credit with making the territorials in their states a huge success. These are the people who mow the range and get it ready for the shoot, they are the ones that run the target shack and the computer program, they are the ones that keep the firing line safe for hours on end, they are the ones that keep everyone well fed and happy and they are the ones that we couldn't run the territorials without. Please accept our heartfelt thanks for all that you do.

The following people were recognized in the match director's territorial report:

Leonard Sisil, Herb Nicholson, Wanda Nicholson, Tracey Pressley, John Mitchell, Elwin Northeutt, Glenn Smith, Angie Cowort, David Hitchner, Tina Hitchner, Richard Brinkman, Charlie Westmoreland, Dwayne Sumpter, Kay Reynolds, Park A. Wood, Jack Reynolds, Jim Thorpe, Misty Brazzell, Mary Dale, Sharon Smith, Josephine County Sportsmen Association, Mike Willard, Bill Bowling, Rob Bargewell, Bear Kelsey, Ed Wick, Ron Nowlin and Shirley Nowlin.

As always I encourage each of you to bring a new shooter to the territorials if you can. You never know you may just spark the fire in a new shooter. I took my own advice and brought two young girls to compete at the Maine territorial. It was their very first time shooting and they had a blast. They were smiling from ear to ear when they held up their targets. It helped remind me just what I love about shooting black powder. I highly recommend sharing your passion for our sport with others.

Plans are underway for a great 2017 territorial season. Please consider attending an NMLRA territorial near you.
