APPLICATION

2016 NMLRA Women's Weekend Scholarship

General Information and Criteria for an Award

The following general information and criteria pertain to the Women's Weekend Scholarship offered by the National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association. The NMLRA will award a scholarship in the amount of $500.00, per year to qualified applicants. Scholarships are based on such criteria as academic achievement, community involvement, major emphasis of study, and financial need.

Applicants do not have to be U. S. citizens.

1. Applications must be received at the NMLRA office for consideration no later than the following dates:

For Fall 2016 - deadline: July 31, 2016

2. Applicants must be members in good standing or a direct dependent of an immediate family member or guardian in good standing of the NMLRA. Good standing is defined as a member whose dues are current and who has been a continuous member for one year prior to the date of application.

 Applicants that are a direct dues paying member will receive higher consideration.*

3. To be eligible for consideration for this Scholarship, applicant must be an high school graduate or equivalent.

4. Eligibility for currently enrolled College or University students must have maintained a minimum Grade Point Average of 2.5 on a 4.0 maximum scale, or the equivalent, which may be implemented at other academic institutions.

5. Economic status and need of an applicant will be considered a favorable factor when all other conditions appear equal. Applicants that show active participation at NMLRA events will be eligible for higher consideration in that respective area.

6. An awarded scholarship will be held until a paid-in-full receipt for tuition, or other proof of enrollment in a College or University, has been received by the NMLRA Office. Non-receipt of proof of enrollment will disqualify the awardee, with consideration then given to next best, qualified applicant.

7. All applicants will be notified as soon as possible as to their award status.

8. You may attach additional pages if you need more space.

9. If you were not chosen for a scholarship grant, please feel free to submit a new application next year, accompanied with all required transcripts.

10. The Woman's Scholarship is for the woman who needs to return for further training or education in order to maintain or obtain a job. This scholarship does not need to be used for tuition only. It is designed to aid the woman who has this need because of circumstances (death, divorce, etc.).

The National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, religion, age, mental or physical disability, veteran status, or national origin in educational and employment opportunities. Any inquiries and/or complaints should be directed to the NMLRA Scholarship Secretary, P.O. Box 67, Friendship, Indiana, 47021. Individuals needing this material in an alternative format should contact the office at the above address or the appropriate program director.
