2015 NMLRA WNS Giveaway Results

I want to thank all who donated to this year's WNS Giveaway prizes – Alan Ross and crew for the cased flintlock pistol and accessories, Pete Hutton for the powder horn, Wayne Mims for the Damascus knife, and Keith Whittly for the pouch. Additionally, thanks to all who donated for the tickets. This year we raised just at $3400 for the WNS. The first drawing was for the incentive knife for those who donated $40 or more and was won by James Ingram of Arizona. James has also built several rifles for the WNS. Next, we combined all tickets and drew for the flintlock pistol which went to Pat Reed of Alaska. The horn was won by Jerry Tinker from Vancouver, Washington. Finally the pouch went to a ticket that had a big "W" as the only mark – kind of like signing with an X in the old days, I guess. Fortunately we know that this was the mark of big Bill (William) Loughrige, our WNS coordinator. Fortunately all except Jerry were present to receive their prize. For next year we will have a Jim Chambers kit assembled by Garry Hagness and another powder horn by a member of the Honourable Company of Horners. George Kevil has agreed to do a pouch. Anyone else wishing to donate a prize for the WNS giveaway please contact the NMLRA office (812-667-5131) or me (andylarson@juno.com). Just a reminder, next year will be the 25th Western National Shoot.

– Andy Larson
